

Typhoid Fever Inoculation Available to Residents of County at Nominal Charge

Serum Furnished by State Health Department; Treatments May Be Administered by Family Physician; Campaign Began April 1

Inoculation against typhoid fever is now available for residents of Marion County at practically a nominal cost. The inoculation program is part of the state health department program which eventually will include diphtheria, smallpox, and physical examinations of the well, which will be put on later.

The typhoid inoculation serum is available to all physicians in the city and county free from either the city or county health departments. Physicians may make a charge for the inoculation work, but the serum is furnished by the state health department free.

Physicians who have calls from their patients for this inoculation may get the serum either from city or county health departments or direct from the state health department at Columbus.

Bulletins Issued
The campaign against the typhoid germ began the first of April. Bulletins have been sent to all county and city health officers from the state health department, stressing the need for spreading the news of this nominal cost inoculation. The state department is hoping that a large number of Ohio citizens will take advantage of the opportunity to gain immunity from typhoid.

The anti-typhoid serum is given in three treatments, about a week apart, and will be administered by the family physician if requested.

Marion and Marion County have experienced several mild epidemics of typhoid fever in recent years. Last year there were 22 cases reported in the city and two deaths. In the county last year there were only four cases and no deaths.

Perfect 36 Figure Thing of Past Merchants Claim

"The Perfect 36," standard feminine figure, seems to be a thing of the past. The curves, slender waists, full busts and full hips that once made the coveted perfect form have lost popular approval in favor of the slender, "straight up and down" figures; the kind that can be easily fitted into one of the accepted straight, close-fitting and modish dresses of today, say Marion's clothing merchants.

The perfect form now, regardless of size, should be four inches larger in the hips than bust, and six inches smaller in the waist than in the bust, size mattering little.

"Women have always had large hips," the corsetiers declare, "and are now coming to the place when they must, in order to wear the slender, youthful lines of the newer dresses, submit to the 'foundation garment.'" Marion and its sister cities seem in line for a "back to the corset" movement, a most annoying admission but one that may be forgiven when one sees the dainty pink satin, silk and elastic affairs known by such attractive names as "foundation garment" or "boyish form" that are to take the place of the corset, it is said.

How to Build Healthy Flesh

Gives Added Strength, Too

If you are thin and drawn-looking and tire easily or are not up to proper weight, you are undernourished—the food you eat fails to build energy and muscle and health as it should.

Your system needs the right kind of digestive stimulation—must have it if you want the rugged appearance of health and the power to resist disease and the strains of every day tasks.

A remarkable stimulant- tonic has been devised for just such conditions as these. It is delightfully palatable and is prepared by an old Virginia concern in business for nearly a century. Druggists and physicians have come to know this stimulant as "Old Monticello Tonic." Get a bottle today from your druggist, take a small wineglass full before your next meal—see how much better you feel—feel the glow of stimulated functions throughout the body. A few days' treatment will bring a quick change in run-down conditions and overcome lack of energy.

The Finest Eight Performance without Penalty of High Cost

UNTIL the coming of the Hupmobile Eight, this most luxurious form of motoring entailed both high first cost and prohibitive cost of upkeep.

Hupmobile changed all previous conceptions of eight-cylinder performance with a straight-eight of elemental simplicity, designed to give superior smoothness on long fuel mileage.

Thus Hupmobile removed the last obstacles which had prevented thousands from driving an eight, demonstrated its superiority over the higher-priced sixes, and won the largest straight-eight following in the world.

The only way to appreciate the vast difference between Hupmobile Eight and lesser types is to drive this Eight yourself.

WAR ANNIVERSARY
GOES UNNOTICED

Washington, April 6—The tenth anniversary of the declaration of war against Germany passed almost unnoticed in the capital today.

Most of the principal actors in the great drama of April 6, 1917, have passed from the stage of world affairs. Woodrow Wilson, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Claude Kitchin, the Democratic leader of the house, who died as he cast his vote against the declaration; the authors of the war resolution, Senator Martin D. Capper, of Kansas, and Representative Flood, Democrat, of Virginia, and others of lesser renown.

It was a rare spring day in Washington today, in contrast to the chill April rain that marked America's entry into the war 10 years ago this date.

The members, are said to be unfriendly to the proposal.

The bill, which prohibits public dances and roller skating on Sundays, passed the house by a margin of one vote. Its defeat in the senate is predicted.

FERDINAND'S CONDITION
STILL IS CRITICAL

Little Hope Held for His Recovery; Papers Say He's Neglected

Vienna.—Re Couriers from Bucharest.—April 6.—King Ferdinand's condition still is critical. Opinion in Bucharest differs as to whether the king will live a day, a week or a fortnight, but little hope is held out for his recovery. Yesterday the king was able to sign some documents and letters.

Even though the king recovers from this attack it is expected that the influenza will have left him so weak that he will not be able to submit to radical treatments for the checking of his cancerous troubles.

Developments of great importance and interest to Marion. Although Mr. Doan did not comment in detail regarding their plans, that part of the statement forecasting increased production and a larger force of employees is of utmost significance.

W. A. Harriman & Co. Inc. is one of the country's leading investment banking concerns prominently identified with the New York Stock Exchange, and in addition has extensive industrial holdings not only in the United States but in other countries.

Industrial interests include protective interests in Germany, Poland, Russia and Hungary, as well as in the country's railways, including the railways, banks, mines and steamship lines and in addition the company has extensive banking interests.

First Shovel Property. As a result of the deal closed here yesterday, the company acquired its first steam shovel industry, indicating that the local property is unquestionably recognized as the most valuable of its kind in the country.

William A. Harriman, oldest son of the late J. P. Harriman, one of the outstanding figures in the country's financial history, is chairman of the board of the company which now owns the local steam shovel property.

Associated with him as members of the board are a large number of some of the country's wealthiest and best-known financiers and industrial leaders, including Percy Rockefeller, Samuel T. Prior, chairman of the board of the Remington Arms Co., Frederick Adams, chairman of the board of the Air Reduction Co., and Eugene G. Grace, president of the Bethlehem Steel Co.

2,000 on Payroll. The Marion Steam Shovel Co. up until yesterday's sale was made, had been strictly a home enterprise, with practically all of the stock held by Marion residents and the management in full control of Marion men. This situation existed from the time that the company began operating in 1884 and grew from a concern employing 20 men to one with approximately 2,000 on its payroll.

The Marion Steam Shovel Co. is capitalized at $1,500,000. of which $1,350,000 has been issued. There are approximately 150 stockholders, all of whom, it is stated, will transfer their holdings to the new company.

The price paid by Harriman & Co. was not made public, but it is understood that it was several times the par value of the stock.

Negotiations for the sale began in February, shortly after previous arrangements for purchase of the industry by Blair & Co., a New York investment banking concern, failed to materialize. The option taken by Blair & Co. was forfeited on Feb. 10.

After a proposal was received from Harriman & Co., a force of auditors and appraisers was sent here from New York City to make a complete check of the property and this work was completed last week.

Sacco and Vanzetti, in Separate Prisons, Unaware of Decision

Boston, April 6.—While friends of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti were preparing to make new legal pleas to save the pair from the electric chair, state and city police guarded houses of plague, prosecutors and public defenders as a measure of protection.

A plea in for a rehearing by the state supreme court, an appeal to federal courts or an appeal to Governor Alton J. Parker and the executive committee for a pardon or commutation of the sentences, to life imprisonment, were among the legal avenues open.

Alton J. Parker, District Attorney, and Dudley P. Ramsey and District Attorney W. Randolph M. Webb of Norfolk County were dealing with Sacco and Vanzetti would be brought into court to be sentenced to die in the electric chair. Saturday morning was set as a tentative date for the sentencing.

The defendants were unaware of the state court decision, Vanzetti in state prison, serving a term for another robbery, and Sacco in Doherty Jail.

have been told, the entire land should be next

It may be just as well that Senator Borah is fitting himself to speak a foreign language since Americans are no longer able to understand him.

It's hardly probable that the powers, when insisting on that open door in China, ever imagined that they were going to be kicked through it.

The Omaha Evening World-Herald says "the hardening of arterial highways is not a bad symptom." The World-Herald evidently overlooks the number of cases of heart disease it has caused when the costs were assessed.

Mr. Lowden says he will run if the West calls calling. Frank will not insist upon that.

What we are wondering is what we are go-marines we will soon have over in China begin shooting.

And now a pact between Italy and Hungary.
Sometimes we are inclined to wonder if a lot of people aren't underestimating the ability of Mussolini.

An opponent of capital punishment says hangings never prevented crimes. Every man to his view, but going back in memory something like half a century we can not recall a case where a crime was committed by any man after he had been hung.

An exchange tells us that "Paris arbiters of men's fashions have approved of a royal blue evening suit for men with pale blue crepe de china underwear." Gee! Are men also going to begin exposing their undies?

"General Andrews' statement, that moonshine of poor quality will soon be the only liquor obtainable," observed the restaurant-philosopher at luncheon today, "carries the inference that there is yet some other kind, which naturally makes us wonder who has been holding out on us."

Soviet Russia calls the United States the wolf in sheep's clothing. Just as though anybody in the United States in this day and age would be content to wear any skin so commonplace as sheep!

What makes the overlooking of Holmes county by a Republican legislative body the more suspicious is that it would be next to impossible for a lot of Republican politicians through inadvertence to overlook a Democratic stronghold of such renown as to hold first position in the famous triad of localities, the other two of which are Texas and that place the late Robert G. Ingersoll always insisted didn't exist.

190 Alleged Traffic Violations.

The monthly report of Police Sergeant Wertz shows that charges against 190 motorists for alleged violations of the traffic code were doctored during March. Some days ago we noted that of sixty charges made, fifty-nine—we believe these to be the figures—were for violations of the parking ordinance. We wonder if about the same ratio doesn't exist to the 190 charges for the past month.

At times we have been inclined to feel that the police authorities are applying too much time to the ticketing of cars for violations of the parking ordinance and hardly enough to violations of other traffic regulations. There are so many and so flagrant violations of the electric signals, so many violations of the speed ordinance, so many violations of the ordinance providing that motorists shall stop before entering a main traffic thoroughfare from a side street, almost universal violation of the headlight ordinance and so many violations of other traffic rules, that it seems to us that the citations for such offenses are far from the ratio they should be to parking ordinance violations. There is always this to be said for a parking law violation; so long as a car is parked, it isn't going to run over anybody.

A number of motorists have made complaint that the lights in some of the electric policemen are so dim at times that they have not been able to see them in time to observe them and have violated them when their inclination and intention was to obey the law. We do not know how much there may be in such claims, but we do know that the signal lights often are not maintained as they should be and are very dim in the day season. The electric signals should be well lighted that there may be no ground for such an excuse and the observance of them should be enforced or they should be removed. Improperly lighted and disobeyed, they are more in the nature of a liability than an asset.

Why Our Amusements Cost.

When you pay Manager Sharpless, of the Grand, from $2.50 to four dollars, plus the tax, for a road show, or Manager Foster, of the Marion, from thirty to fifty cents for a movie, do not resent the thought that you have been shown put as good, and possibly a lot better, for half the money. Mr. Sharpless or Mr. Foster charge the price, but you must them. If you are a professional man, you are helped by raising the price for your professional service. If you are a manufacturer, you are helped by charging more for your output. If you are a merchant, you asked the hotel to be charging more for your goods. If you are a skilled mechanic, your part was in putting a higher price on your skill. And the day laborer did his share by asking more for his labor. All of you help raise the price, all up and down the line.

Everything costs more now than it did back in the days when good road shows might be seen for a dollar and a half for the best seats to two dollars and movie top-notch prices were from ten to twenty cents. Not only is this true, but all of us now demand more with our amusements, and we rebel if our demands are not met. Our attention was called to this, yesterday, by the announcement in a Chicago paper of the terms of a new two-year contract made by and between the Chicago Civic Opera company and the musicians' union up there. Last season the average salary of a member of the opera orchestra was $112. This season it is $116 and next season it will be $122. A week? Does you not? The genius who works the side tram, the artist who sketches the road, the player the keyboard of the grand piano with the charm no longer performing the love. These figures are for the week.

We do not mean that these prices are paid here. They are not, of course. They simply could not be. Marion houses lack the patronage or the capacity to handle such patronage as to justify anything like such pay. But we offer them to show the trend, and what is true of the musicians is true of every department of the amusement business. Everybody is demanding more, and thus all are paying more to meet the demands made by others.

There have been April fool jokes and April fool jokes, but one in a class by itself was pulled off by old Mother Nature out in Rapid City, South Dakota, this year when she started the day with bright sunshine and ended it with eighteen inches of snow.

We weren't worrying any so long as the hold-up people confined their activities to the places where the cover charges are five dollars, but since they have begun to rob patrons of the childs restaurants we're sitting up and taking notice.

The Cincinnati Enquirer tells us that "Norway is in a ferment over a cook-book." And here we have gone right along assuming that the Norwegians knew every possible way of cooking potatoes and fish, and then some.

Following hearings at which an agreement was reached, the Ohio senate sent the bus bill back to committee to have it rewritten with the objectionable matter eliminated. The committee has returned the rewritten bill with the most objectionable matter—that taking bus lines out of the control of the state—written in. A suspicious person might get the idea that the committee is interested in bus lines.

King George is quoted as saying that he would rather see a woman use a sidesaddle

George is not considering the feelings of either the woman or the horse.

Off hand, we assume that the young French woman who has come over to enter the so-called beauty contest in Atlantic City will admit she is the most beautiful of all the girls of France.

When even the members of the faculty of a college are so lost to all that is highest and best in an educational way as to suppress with ruthlessness, as those of that Kansas college did, a student body publication of such high literary merit and elevated tone as the name, "The Pink Stinker," would imply, we may well ask: "Does education pay?"

Ministers, social students, welfare workers, lawyers and statesmen variously have advised the general public with reference to remedies for curbing and minimizing crime activity in the United States.

To this symposium now is added the opinion of one who speaks from first-hand information, from practical experience—Culpritt 39,068 of the Ohio state penitentiary.

Waiting for the Outlook, the prisoner scoffs at the idea of brotherly love as applied to criminals. He argues that when an individual will not live at large in conformity to social rights and becomes—as he did—a serious menace to the peace and safety and property of a civilized community, that individual, rich or poor, influential or friendless, should be removed from active circulation like a spurious coin and clapped into a convenient strong place and kept there until he has been thoroughly uncriminalized.

Culpritt 39,068 advocates, but criticizes, the undeterminate sentence. He argues the impossibility of setting a specific time within which reformation of a prisoner may be determined. Hence judges set a time that is ineffective through being too short, or unjust through being too long.

"Why not, indeed?" the writer concludes that there is nothing wrong with our prisons except that none are large enough. But as reformatories and penitentiaries they are misnomers in every sense of the word. And he tells us why. "It is because they are operated on the archaic and false principle of an 'eye for an eye'—a system which makes men worse instead of better, and turns them out a greater menace than when they came in."

Perfinitely he observes: "You don't have to operate your penal institutions in a manner that would bankrupt the best-financed private corporation."

And this: "The one thing which has done more harm in this country than all the crime-breeding conditions combined is nothing more or less than capital neglect. And don't let anybody tell you different."

A wise man is Culpritt 39,068.

"IF THE MOUNTAIN WON'T COME TO MAHOMET THEN MAHOMET MUST GO TO THE MOUNTAIN."

Simple Life Brings Out Charm.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

Not long ago I read an article about the "most beautiful woman in England." It said something like this: "There is a popular illusion that beauty grows wild. But the fact is that almost invariably it is the product of careful, even scientific cultivation. Open-air exercise and sound constitution, careful diet and a regular life are the basis of good looks."

I agree to all this, but I am more interested in what such cultivation does for health and long life than I am for what it may accomplish in the way of increased beauty. However, good looks can not be secured at—there is a great advantage in the possession of physical beauty of face and figure.

When a farmer seeks to buy a horse and has two animals out for inspection, he will take the better-looking beast provided it almost equals the other in strength and vigor. There can be no doubt that appearance goes far in promoting popularity. We are just as partial to good looks in human beings as we are in horses.

The use of rouge is a confession that the human facial features are not perfect. It is said that imitation is the sincerest flattery. The imitation of health affected by devices of the rouge-pot is proof conclusive that natural color is sincerely envied.

"The most beautiful woman in England looks that she can not continue to be beautiful unless she lives a simple life. To keep her good looks she must do all the things she would do if she would keep her good health. Beauty and health are twins. Of course, health can live without beauty, but certainly beauty can not live without health. And in the last analysis there is a degree of beauty at least if there is abundant health."

Let not the man who reads this language be interested in the subject under discussion. He has no matter what his place in life may be, he is handicapped if he has a pimply chin, bad teeth, foul breath, long, unkempt hair, dirty hair, dandruffcovered scalp and a filthy catch.

On the contrary, if he is upstanding, square-shouldered, straight-backed, clean-skinned and full of vigor, he has increased his chances of a successful and happy career.

The bath, the abundance of sleep in fresh air, the sunshine, the exercise, the simple food—these are the chief things if there is to be good health and the maximum of personal beauty.

ANSWERS TO HEALTH QUERIES

S. M. W. Q.—What do you advise for excessive perspiration under the arms?

A.—This condition is usually due to a disorder of the sympathetic nervous system. Hot water compresses applied under the arms for half an hour are beneficial. You should have treatment for the nervous condition.

T. H. P. Q.—Kindly explain what is known as a mole?—

A.—A mole is any raised area over the skin.

R. D. N. Q.—How can I get rid of intestinal worms?

A.—This requires special treatment. For particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.—Copyright, 1927.

The Way of the World.

BY GROVE PATTERSON.

In New York a great city lies under the surface of the earth. Millions of men and women race back and forth on railway tracks underground. Thousands work at regular jobs for years—below the surface. Huge buildings reach far down into the earth. Thousands live and move and have their being and never see the sunlight. And now, all over this country, we are writing a new geography—over and under the earth. Pipe lines and power lines reach everywhere. Isolated areas are made to hum with activity by wires above and below. Those of us who still walk about on the surface of the earth wonder what it's all about.

Those who do the figuring for the government tell us that between 1919 and 1926 20,- 000,000 plowed acres were abandoned in the United States and millions of country folks moved to town. And yet, in that period the output of crops increased seventeen per cent.
That shows that somebody has learned a lot about production in this country. We do more work with fewer people working shorter hours.
Provided we know what to do with our increased leisure, our ability to do more work in less time must be set down as one of the comparatively few signs of real improvement in our civilization.

"Movies" is or are a new course in Harvard university. The Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration announces lectures by leading figures in the motion picture field. Will Hays will deliver the first. The movies must be taken seriously because they have come to have a tremendous influence on the lives of people.

Harvard announces two other interesting courses for the new course. They are, first, the growing need and opportunity for trained business men in the motion-picture industry; second, the fact that the motion-picture serves as an illustration of an industry which has grown so rapidly that all stages in commercial development may be clearly traced.

The late congress did many things of little account and left undone some important things.
One thing it did not do, for which it deserves credit, was its refusal to make a law out of a bill proposed by a Mississippi member. He proposed that all magazine stories be submitted to a board of censors before publication. All kinds of men got into the law-making body of this nation. If some had their way there would be no such thing as human progress.
All human movement, if any, would be backward.

Dinner Stories.

Little Roberta knew very little about death.
She had never been to a funeral, but there was a cemetery nearby where she used to wander in search of violets in the spring. Now Roberta had a small kitten, "Johanna," which was very sickly and it finally died. Roberta went copiously and refused to be comforted until her uncle promised to bury the cat in the back yard. He made a grave for the departed pet, then asked his small niece what she wished written on it. The youngster hurried to the cemetery then returned to give the following instructions.

"Write this," she directed. "Here lies the fur part of Johanna. The rest is in heaven.
Johanna was a good cat."

On the concert program of one of the larger New York orchestras not long since was Beethoven's "Leonore" overture, the two climaxes of which are each followed by a trumpet passage offstage. The first climax came, but not a sound from the trumpet.

The conductor, considerably annoyed, went on to the second. Again there was silence.
This time the overture being finished, he rushed into the wings.

There he found the trumpet player still arguing with the house drummer.

"Tell you, you can't play that thing back there!" the latter was saying. "There's a concert going on."

Poems That Live.

SPRING SONG.

Make me over, Mother April,
When the sap begins to stir!
Wipe the dewy hand delvers All the mountain-prisoned rivers, And the great heart beats and quivers To revive the days that were,
Make me over, Mother April,
When the sap begins to stir!
Set me in the urge and tide-drift
Of the streaming hoards a-wing!
Bread of scarlet, throat of yellow, Raucous challenges, swooning mellow—Every migrant is my fellow.
Making northward with the spring,
Set me in the urge and tide-drift
Of the streaming hoards a-wing!
Make me over, Mother April,
When the sap begins to stir!
Fashion me from swamp or meadow, Garden plot or ferny shadow, Hyacinth or humble burl!
Make me over, Mother April,
When the sap begins to stir!
Let me hear the far, low summons,
When the silver winds return;
Rills that run and streams that slammer, Goldenwing with his loud hammer, Jez brooks that brawl and clamor, Where the Indian willows burn:
Let me hearken to the calling,
When the silver winds return.
Only make me over, April,
When the sap begins to stir!
Make me man or make me woman, Make me elf or ape or human,
Cap of flower or cone of fir:
Make me anything but neuter
When the sap begins to stir!
—Bliss Carman.

New York Day by Day.

BY O. O. MINTYRE.

New York, April 6.—It is becoming increasingly difficult to meet the demand for hereabouts without remaining up late. In the mail today were two interesting letters. One bears the tag line, "Reception at 11." The other reads: "One wonders eventually what is to become of that ridiculous gesture known as Many important executive positions are held by men who frequently remove their heads clothes, take a shower, don a business suit and go to the office, perhaps to rebuke a raper for being ten minutes late."

It is quite probable all night carousing largely responsible for the growing "morning sickness" in nearly all side streets. The forties and fifties after dawn breaks may even men and women in evening clothes at the sun while awaiting taxicabs.

These are, of course, subjects of which who have repaired to hidden recesses of main rooms closed. But all night carousing confined to such institutions of gaming, the apartment party is not hitting on the ground midnight.

One reason is that in these days not a party unless it is graced by a or so and they are not able to remove grease paint and leave the theater at midnight hour. Often, too, they must to secure proper clothes.

It is not especially difficult for them to main up until daylight for, save on busy days, they can sleep all day. Yet for the men who must face important matters early lapse a board of directors the wild something else again. "Ho, hum!"

But there is a New York sinking into a languor with twilight that sits itself the roystering stay-outs are swinging They are the old aristocrats and taking from their high, croupal and making wonders, just what they think of this buoyant generation. Perhaps very little.

The other day at lunch was a man in middle years who confessed he had not sleep for two nights in succession. "Par-ple explained between steaming cups of coffee. "And the worst of it," he said, "is I've got to talk to my son this evening. I was sent home from boarding school crawling into his dormitory room after o'clock at night."

In other days New York cafes were between 8 and 10 in the evening. Now are deserted. Many, indeed, close at 9 o'clock to reopen at 11. It is only after midnight become steamed up.

It is an old story how quickly New York gets, but there was a concrete example other evening. A famous dancer of ten ago came into a place after the theater.
She was furred in ermine and gleaming with jewels. For some time she has been in middle retirement. Not a soul seemed to recognize her and even the headwaiter parked her her party at an obscure table.

It is noticed that many little tea those proprietors thought several years that a few chintz curtains, burning gas and a brace of sullen Japanese waiters charging outrageous prices, have expired. white enameled stool counter lunches supplanted them. There is light and clear instead of a glowering stillness.

In one of the stool counter places, I a perfect characterization. "Life is poison," the type who thinks the mem-poisonous is to pick his teeth at the table kind a napkin."—Copyright, 1927.

TRACE "DOPE RING" IN CLUBBING OF NURSE

Acquaintance of Girl Convicted of Narcotic Peddling To Be Questioned

Cleveland, April 6.—Detectives today are tracing activities of a local "dope ring" in the hope of passing down the clubber who attacked Katherine Madison, Cleveland nurse, here last Wednesday night. The victim died Saturday night as a result of the clubbing.

A woman and a man are under arrest, police say who will be questioned this morning regarding their supposed knowledge of a narcotic ring. The woman is said to have rented a room at her home to a male nurse, Miss Madison who was convicted last November of a narcotic peddling charge. This man is now in Atlanta Prison and federal authorities have made arrangements to question him there.

A search also is under way to locate a man by the name of "John," who is said, called upon the nurse several days before she was strangled.

Florida police have been asked to telegraph the name of the owner of a Chrysler automobile, which local detectives say carries the license number "Fla-211-147." This car is believed to be the one in which the pretty nurse had been seen riding about five days before she was clubbed.

Two men and a woman, who were questioned by police following funeral services for Miss Madison yesterday, were released.

"TIZ" FOR TENDER SORE, TIRED FEET

Just put those weary, scorched, aching, burning feet into a Tiz bath. When your feet ache and burn, Tiz, and only Tiz, will bring relief.

Tiz is great, glorious for tortured feet. It draws the swelling and poisons and acids right out. Stops the pain of corns. Puts your feet into perfect condition.

Get a box of Tiz now, of any drug or department store. Don't suffer. Have feet that never hurt, never get tired.—Adv.

Vivacious

Youthful vivacity and captivating charm belong only to girls who are sure of their appearance—who give careful attention to every detail of their grooming—and can then forget themselves in their interest in others. Such a girl is attractive Miss Beatrice Turel, 62 E. 90th St., New York City, who says: "I'm so delighted with the way the exquisitely textured Black and White Face Powder can be smoothed on and then forgotten! It clings for hours without renewing, never clogs the pores or looks pasty, but gives my skin a soft, silky appearance like velvet. I love to have its delightful flower-fragrance seem a part of my personality!"

You, too, can have the assurance of looking your loveliest when you use the delicately fragrant Black and White Face Powder. You can get the hint you like best—white, flesh, pink or brunette—attractively packaged for 25c, from any of 80,000 dealers all over the country.

Pain in Your Shoulder?

It's Probably Neuritis; Use Tysmol for Relief

Knife-like jabs of pain in the vicinity of the shoulder blade are generally due to neuritis, brought on by exposure to draughts or sudden changes of weather. In some cases there is stiffness or soreness in the muscles, making it difficult to raise the arm.

The safest and easiest way to relieve such an attack is to apply a small quantity of Tysmol over the affected area. This soothing, healing preparation is quickly absorbed through the pores and carried to the throbbing, aching peripheral nerves. The pain usually stops at once, and in a very short time the last trace of soreness should disappear.

Tysmol is absolutely harmless—free from drugs. Recommended for all forms of nerve pain, whether caused by neuritis, arthritis, sciatica or rheumatism. You can get a good supply for $1 at any drug store. Always on hand at

Women's Old-Time Hygiene

Disappearing—New way discards like tissue

By ELLEN J. DUCKLAND Registered Nurse

THE worries and fear of the uncertain hygienic ways of yesterday are rapidly passing. 8 in 10 better class women employ a new way called Kotex.

✓ Kotex discards like tissue. No laundry, no disposal bother.

Being 5 times as absorbent as ordinary cotton "pads," it permits lightest gowns and frocks without danger. Dance, motor, go about for hours without a moment's doubt.

Deodorizes, too, thus ending all fear of offense. Doctors urge this way.

Many stores have Kotex already wrapped on counters, ready for you to pick up without even asking for it.

Try today and you'll never again risk uncertain old ways. Box of 12 costs only a few cents. Be sure you get the genuine. Only Kotex itself is "like" Kotex.

Pains That Never Came

Here's glorious news for long-suffering womanhood! To every woman who periodically has suffered pain, Menstruation need no longer be painful. And it is Science that is speaking! Specialists have developed a tiny tablet, called Midol. It's a simple thing, utterly harmless to a girl of fourteen, but it brings relief in five to seven minutes. And is effective twelve hours or longer!

Midol is NOT a narcotic. It has no effect whatever on heart or nervous system. It acts directly on those organs affected by menstruation. They function normally, as they should, but the pain is banished. Complete relief—yes, perfect comfort—follows midol. Your druggist has midol for 50 cents in a slim aluminum box to tuck in your purse.

OPENS REVIVAL
Rev. S. L. Sellers Delivers First Sermon at Central Christian Church

Revival services in charge of Rev. S. L. Sellers of Indianapolis, Ind., opened last night at Central Christian Church with good attendance. Reverend Sellers spoke on the subject, "The Man at the Pool."

"The man at the pool, from Biblical history, had no one to help him in his many of us have no one to help us today," the evangelist said. "Many of us have no one who is interested in our souls with the love and compassion to lead them to the great physician of life. It is the ministry of the church to lead people to Jesus, who can and will meet all needs of his flock."

Following the sermon two chorists pronounced their faith in Christ and dedicated their lives to His work. Reverend Sellers will preach on the subject, "Seven Wonders of the Bible" at the service tonight. The two chorists led by Henry W. Colquhoun of Sidney, at the service last night, will again be heard at tonight's service. Mr. Colquhoun will sing, "Wonderful Love of the Crucified."

Thompson Defeats Dever in Race for Chicago Mayoralty

FORMER MAYOR WINS POST BY 83,000 VOTES

Election Quiet; Supporters of Victor Parade Loop Streets After Hearing Returns

Chicago, April 6.—William Hale Thompson, Republican, will be the next mayor of Chicago. Complete returns today show that he won over his Democratic opponent, Mayor William E. Dever, in yesterday's bitterly contested election by a plurality of 83,002 votes.

Dr. John Dill Robertson, former health commissioner, who ran on an independent Republican ticket, finished a poor third. Thompson's total vote of 512,740—was more than the vote of Dever and Robertson combined. Dever polled a total of 429,698 votes and Robertson 51,269.

The election in the main was quiet. Threatened bloodshed and rioting on a large scale failed to materialize. There were the usual shootings and sluggings without which no Chicago election is complete but general rioting as anticipated by city and county authorities did not even threaten.

Police Organized
Several reasons were advanced for the unusual calm that prevailed the voting places. The police were better organized than they had ever been before. Back of them stood the threat of the national guard.

"The gangsters knew," one high police official pointed out, "that they would be shown no quarter." He said he believed the fatal shooting of Vincent Drucel, a powerful gang leader, by a police officer the day before election, was an excellent object lesson to the underworld.

Nearly a million votes were cast—608,917 to be exact. This total was the largest by more than 200,000 ever.
